Scott McBrayne of Cadillac Fairview Named to CABA's Executive Committee

The Continental Automated Buildings Association (CABA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Board Member Scott McBrayne, Senior Director, National Operations (Shared Services) at Cadillac Fairview Corporation Limited, to the CABA Executive Committee. CABA is an international nonprofit industry association dedicated to the advancement of connected home and intelligent building technologies.

Mr. McBrayne leads a team of SMEs to create a Centre of Excellence as a shared service, overseeing building operations and standards including major infrastructure service, life cycle management, preventative maintenance, and capital asset plans. Over the past 30 years, he has held several positions at Cadillac Fairview including portfolio operations and in the Technology group. As one of North America's largest owners, operators and developers of commercial real estate, Cadillac Fairview focuses on developing and managing high quality office, retail and mixed-use properties in Canada and the United States, as well as international investments in real estate companies and investment funds.

"I am very pleased to welcome Scott McBrayne to the CABA Executive Committee," said Ron Zimmer, CABA President & CEO. Mr. McBrayne has served on the CABA Board since 2012. "He offers stellar industry experience and strategic counsel to CABA, and brings valuable insight on the perspectives of end-users – the needs of builders, building owners and building operators in taking up intelligent building technologies."

"I am thrilled to join the CABA executive committee and look forward to contributing to the strategic vision and direction of the organization to support the real estate industry using digital transformation technologies," said Mr. McBrayne.
